Dear Friends:

I am pleased to have this opportunity to send greetings to everyone gathered for the Westchester Fairfield Hebrew Academy's Annual Erev Tov Dinner Dance. I want to extend my best wishes to all of you for a successful and memorable evening.

On this special occasion, I would like to recognize Beth and Brad Boyer, Sari Dweck and Larry Ginsburg, and Rhonda Schaffer-Maroon and Jeff Maroon, as you honor them this evening. Their great commitment to our community and their dedication to creating an inviting learning environment have made them more than deserving of this recognition.

I would also like to congratulate and thank all of you who are involved with the Westchester Fairfield Hebrew Academy. Faculty, staff and volunteers have all played an essential role in providing a valuable education to our children. I believe education is one of the most important ingredients for success, not only on an individual level but also for our nation as a whole, and the lessons our children learn at schools such as yours are invaluable to them in gaining the knowledge that will help guide them for the rest of their lives. I know that you will nurture them and enable them to learn as much as possible so that their futures will be sound ones.

Sincerely,

Nita M. Lowey
