UNITED STATES SENATE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

June 13, 2010

Dear Friends,

It is my pleasure to welcome you all to Westchester Fairfield Hebrew Academy's Erev Tov Dinner Dance.

Mazel Tov to tonight's Honorees: Beth and Brad Boyer, Sari Dweck, Larry Ginsburg, Rhonda Schaffer-Maroon and Jeff Maron. You are being honored for your steadfast and enduring support of WFHA. You have made a tremendous impact on this wonderful institution.

I would also like to thank everyone gathered here tonight for their continued commitment and generous support of this academy. With your help this school is able to provide a foundation for students which will be built upon throughout their lives. Since 1997 WFHA has been a place where student's creativity and curiosity is nurtured and cultivated. Equally important students are taught our history, our language, and that as Jews we are a mishpucha—a family. It is this Familial bond that brings us together tonight; so that we may pay tribute to a school that has guided so many children to the success that they have today. It is my hope that this school may continue to grow and expand its services for many years to come.

With every good wish for a wonderful evening,

Sincerely,

Joseph I. Lieberman
